Course Description + Objectives

This course is an advanced investigation into typography and text for verbal and visual expression. Emphasis is placed on the analysis of meaning and structure, design composition, and communication to specific audiences. Projects are both pragmatic (textbook design), and expressionistic (found and constructed typographic compositions that are poetic and conceptual). Readings, design and writing projects and discussion of communication theory in commercial and fine arts comprise the content of the course. Emphasis is placed on the study of meaning regarding audience, culture, and history.

Some content is provided in certain projects and in others is largely based on the student's own research and writing.

Requirements include: GD230 (Beginning Typography) or consent of the instructor.

Learning Goals

- Practice the selection and arrangement of type for effective legibility and readability
- Create functional organization of complex information through effective hierarchy and typographic expression
- Explore the expressive range of typography as a primary visual, illustrative element

Learning Outcomes

- Students demonstrate an ability to produce refined, sophisticated information and graphic design that illuminates the subject and supports the reader/user experience.
- Students experiment with solutions, critically analyze the results of their own solutions and those of their peers, and make modifications
- Students create expressive typography resulting in illustration and contemporary typeface design.

Class work

Much of your work will be conducted outside the class, especially idea development, content development, planning and sketching. You are responsible for the time management necessary to ensure that you have computer time outside of class.

Critiques

We will have project critiques and presentations that ensure that we learn from one another and share information. Attendance and participation in critiques is mandatory.

Projects

Each project is described on the following page. Examples of all projects will be shown in class. All critiques are posted on the class blog. You can only post JPGs. PDFs can be uploaded through Google Docs. Pre-final critiques require print-out as well; they do not need to be mounted. Final Critiques require full color output and mounting (flush to edge). A Design statement (250 words) describing the intent and meaning of your project, is required to be posted you're your final project on the class blog. Statement your design goals, audience, measure of success and any other relevant information. Each critiques requires a design post; you must comment on three other student's work for each posting by the Friday following the critique.

Blog

All work must be posted to D2L and to <http://advancedtypecdm.blogspot.com>

You will receive an invite. It's easiest to interact with the blog with a GMAIL account. You must accept the blog invite to post to the blog. Please email if you have not received an invite. It is easier to participate on this blog if you have a Gmail address. Each post must have your last name in the title and the project name. Further information on all aspects of each project are will be clarified in class discussion and individual meetings with the teacher. When in doubt, make an appointment with me or email me.

You must post all projects, critiques and comments to the class blog and to D2L.

Project Descriptions

Project: ABCs

Construct a glossary, using every letter of the alphabet, of typographic or design-related words with their definitions. You may not use any images, unless they are illustrations or photographs of letterforms — no images that are not typographic are to be used in this project. You are required to have a PDF version of your project that we will project in class for the FINAL CRITIQUE. You will also need to minimally print the cover and one spread for the Final Critique as well as post to the blog and D2L; you do not need to mount the project.

Project: Textbook Remix

Re-design format and all levels of typographic treatments and images, of a middle school history textbook chapter opener. You will be creating spreads and translation moving from print to IPAD to phone. Examples will be provided. This is a heavy lifting, excellent project to build both your design and typographic skills, and to understand the number of typographic levels necessary in a complex design project. It is also an excellent portfolio piece. Full-color output mounted on black presentation board as well as PDFs are required for final critique. We will work via SKYPE with a textbook architect (the newest description of a designer working in textbook design crossing print, tower, laptop, tablet and phone).

Project: Three-dimensional typography

Select a phrase, poem, tagline, or slogan to typographically illustrate (actually spell-out) in three-dimensional form. Photograph the construction for the final presentation. The work may exist as a series.

Examples will be shown in class.

Attendance

Class attendance and participation is mandatory. Please note that because our class meets once weekly that is equal to two class periods in classes that meet twice a week. One and a half absences will result in one full grade drop; additional absences will result in additional grade drops. Having to work at an outside job is not an acceptable reason to miss class. If you are more than 15 minutes late for class, you will be marked absent. If you miss a critique without an "emergency" excuse, your project grade is automatically dropped by one full grade (e.g., a "B" would become a "C"). You will receive an automatic F, if you miss three classes. If you miss a critique without an "emergency" excuse, your project grade is automatically dropped by one full grade.

Textbook

There is no required textbook, but there will be occasional readings.

Online Course Evaluations

Evaluations are a way for students to provide valuable feedback regarding their instructor and the course. Detailed feedback will enable the instructor to continuously tailor teaching methods and course content to meet the learning goals of the course and the academic needs of the students. They are a requirement of the course and are key to continue to provide you with the highest quality of teaching. The evaluations are anonymous; the instructor and administration do not track who entered what responses. A program is used to check if the student completed the evaluations, but the evaluation is completely separate from the student's identity. Since 100% participation is our goal, students are sent periodic reminders over three weeks. Students do not receive reminders once they complete the evaluation. Students complete the evaluation online in CampusConnect.

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism

This course will be subject to the university's academic integrity policy. More information can be found at <http://academicintegrity.depaul.edu/>. If you have any questions be sure to consult with your professor.

Academic Policies

All students are required to manage their class schedules each term in accordance with the deadlines for enrolling and withdrawing as indicated in the University Academic Calendar. Information on enrollment, withdrawal, grading and incompletes can be found at: cdm.depaul.edu/enrollment.

Students with Disabilities

Students who feel they may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact the instructor privately to discuss their specific needs. All discussions will remain confidential. To ensure that you receive the most appropriate accommodation based on your needs, contact the instructor as early as possible in the quarter (preferably within the first week of class), and make sure that you have contacted the Center for Students with Disabilities (CSD) at: csd@depaul.edu.

Lewis Center 1420, 25 East Jackson Blvd.
Phone number: (312)362-8002 Fax: (312)362-6544 TTY: (773)325.7296

Harassment

The policy as specified in the DePaul Student Handbook will be adhered to in this class.

Changes to Syllabus

This syllabus is subject to change as necessary during the quarter. If a change occurs, it will be thoroughly addressed during class, posted under Announcements in D2L and sent via email.

Withdrawal

Students who withdraw from the course do so by using the Campus Connection system (<http://campusconnect.depaul.edu>). Withdrawals processed via this system are effective the day on which they are made. Simply ceasing to attend, or notifying the instructor, or nonpayment of tuition, does not constitute an official withdrawal from class and will result in academic as well as financial penalty.

Retroactive Withdrawal

This policy exists to assist students for whom extenuating circumstances prevented them from meeting the withdrawal deadline. During their college career students may be allowed one medical/personal administrative withdrawal and one college office administrative withdrawal, each for one or more courses in a single term. Repeated requests will not be considered. Submitting an appeal for retroactive withdrawal does not guarantee approval.

College office appeals for CDM students must be submitted online via MyCDM.

The deadlines for submitting appeals are as follows:

Autumn Quarter:	Last day of the last final exam of the subsequent winter quarter
Winter Quarter:	Last day of the last final exam of the subsequent spring quarter
Spring Quarter:	Last day of the last final exam of the subsequent autumn quarter
Summer Terms:	Last day of the last final exam of the subsequent autumn quarter

Excused Absence

In order to petition for an excused absence, students who miss class due to illness or significant personal circumstances should complete the Absence Notification process through the Dean of Students office. The form can be accessed at <http://studentaffairs.depaul.edu/dos/forms.html>. Students must submit supporting documentation alongside the form. The professor reserves the sole right whether to offer an excused absence and/or academic accommodations for an excused absence.

Incomplete

An incomplete grade is a special, temporary grade that may be assigned by an instructor when unforeseeable circumstances prevent a student from completing course requirements by the end of the term and when otherwise the student had a record of satisfactory progress in the course. CDM policy requires the student to initiate the request for incomplete grade before the end of the term in which the course is taken. Prior to submitting the incomplete request, the student must discuss the circumstances with the instructor. Students may initiate the incomplete request process in MyCDM.

All incomplete requests must be approved by the instructor of the course and a CDM Associate Dean. Only exceptional cases will receive such approval.

If approved, students are required to complete all remaining course requirement independently in consultation with the instructor by the deadline indicated on the incomplete request form.

By default, an incomplete grade will automatically change to a grade of F after two quarters have elapsed (excluding summer) unless another grade is recorded by the instructor.
