Course Description — This lecture-based course will introduce students to the art of cinema from the point of view of the filmmaker. Through screenings of contemporary and classic films, students will gain an appreciation of the various crafts involved in the making of movies, such as: acting, directing, producing, screenwriting, cinematography, production design, editing, sound, or visual effects. This course is not intended for students who plan to major or minor in Digital Cinema. No prerequisites.

Learning Domain Description — Film 100 Introduction to Cinema: The Art of Making Movies is included in the Liberal Studies program as a course with credit in the Arts and Literature domain. Courses in the Arts and Literature domain ask students to extend their knowledge and experience of the arts while developing their critical and reflective abilities. In these courses, students interpret and analyze particular creative works, investigate the relations of form and meaning, and through critical and/or creative activity, come to better understand the original audience that witnessed a work of art and how its meaning and significance changes over time. These courses focus on works of art or literature, however the process of analysis may include social, cultural, and historical issues. Genres covered in this domain include literature, the visual arts, media arts, the performing arts, music, and theater.

Learning Outcomes — After successful completion of this course students will be able to:

- Understand and discuss film as an artistic medium
- Analyze and discuss the craft and technique of specific members of the filmmaking process (i.e. cinematographer, editor, writer, etc.)
- Analyze and discuss visual communication and storytelling as used by filmmakers

Learning outcomes will be achieved through in-class discussions and exercises as well as writing assignments that will require students to think critically and analyze a specific aspect of filmmaking in a given film. Students are expected to write 6 pages this quarter in accordance with the Arts and Literature domain requirement.

Textbook — There is no required textbook for this class. Reading assignments will be made available through D2L.

Online Course Management System — We will use D2L as our online course management system. You can log in at <<https://d2l.depaul.edu>>. Course documents, updates to the course, lecture slides, important information, and news will be posted there. Please check D2L regularly.

If you do not turn something in through D2L, you will not get credit. Do not email me any homework assignments or other course documents.

Film screenings

All films that we screen will be posted on Panopto, DePaul's video management system. You will be able to watch the films through the links on the Content page of D2L. You will need to log into Panopto with your CampusConnect credentials. You are free to find the films at the library, on streaming services, or elsewhere online if desired.

Please note that Panopto may not work with certain browser extensions or certain browser settings. I recommend you use Google Chrome as your browser with no extensions turned on. If you cannot get the films to play, it is your responsibility to contact me to ensure you stay current with the screenings.

Standards for Achievement:

Grade A:

Student performs in an outstanding way. Student exhibits achievement and craftsmanship in all work. Criteria are exceeded and student challenges him/herself in project development. Student exhibits commitment to expanding ideas, vocabulary, and performance.

Grade B:

Student performs beyond the requirement of the project. Student exhibits above average progress and craftsmanship. A criterion is exceeded. Student exhibits above average interest in expanding ideas, vocabulary, and performance.

Grade C:

Criteria of assignment are met, and all requirements are fulfilled. Student shows average quality work and minimum time and effort on projects. Student shows moderate interest.

Grade D:

Student performance is uneven and below average. Requirements for projects are only partially fulfilled. Minimal interest is shown and attendance, participation and involvement are inadequate.

Grade F

Student fails to meet minimum course requirements and shows no interest. Levels of participation and craftsmanship are extremely poor. Student's attendance is inadequate.

Papers — There will be three, two-page analysis papers throughout the quarter. All homework must be submitted via D2L on the Submissions page. The folders where you submit your assignments close automatically so no late work will be accepted. Technical difficulties are not acceptable excuses for not turning in your assignments on time.

You may also pitch me a video essay or another alternative assignment that I will accept in lieu of paper(s) on a case-by-case basis. You must get pre-approval to turn in something other than a paper. Be creative!

Quizzes — There will be five quizzes throughout the quarter, the lowest of which will be automatically dropped at the end of the quarter. There will be a comprehensive quiz at the end of the quarter that is not eligible to be dropped. All quizzes will be administered through D2L. They will close promptly at the appointed time. You will not be able to access or submit quizzes that are in progress once the deadline passes.

You must finish the film screenings and the readings before doing the quizzes as the quizzes cover readings, screenings, and lecture material.

All quizzes and papers are due 15 minutes before the start of class.

Writing Help — I strongly encourage all students to make use of the University Center for Writing-based Learning (aka The Writing Center). It is a free service provided by the University that will help ensure your assignments are of the highest quality. To learn more about the services they offer, visit their website: <http://condor.depaul.edu/writing/index.html>

General Notes:

- All lecture slides will be posted to the Content page of D2L as PDFs. Clips and other media files used in class will be made available for download there too.
- All readings will be available on the Content page of D2L under the week they are assigned.

My policies

Attendance/Weekly Notes — For in-person students: attendance is required for all classes.

For online async students: You are required to turn in your lecture notes from viewing the lecture portion of each week's content. You are not required to take notes on the film screenings, but you may if you choose. You may type your notes or hand-write them and upload photos, whichever you prefer. Think of this as the async version of weekly attendance. At the end of the quarter, your lowest weekly note score will be dropped.

Zoom Etiquette — My office hours will be held via Zoom. If you make an appointment, you're expected to follow common sense Zoom etiquette. I.E. you're expected to wear clothes (pajamas are fine) if you have your camera on. You're expected to make this class your primary focus while you're on Zoom (e.g. don't be in another Zoom call/class). Etc.

Special Accommodations: If you need any special considerations, whether it's because of a learning or physical disability, etc, please send me an email within the first week of the quarter.

Respect — Please respect the films we'll watch, many of which have mature themes and situations. During screenings, please do not have other tabs open or use your phone.

Email — The best way to contact me is through email. I usually respond to emails received Monday through Friday within 24 hours. Emails received Saturdays and Sundays may not be returned until Monday.

Grade disputes — Any disputes or challenges to an assignment's grade must be made in writing (email is fine) within 48 hours of receiving your grade. You must state why you are challenging the grade and provide evidence to support your claim. Challenges to your final grade should follow the University's policy on grade challenges, which can be found in the student handbook: <https://catalog.depaul.edu/student-handbooks/undergraduate/undergraduate-academic-policies/challenges-to-grades/>

Expectations — Yes, this is an intro level course for non-majors. That does not mean it should be easy. I expect the same high quality writing and work befitting DePaul's standards of excellence that all the professors in your major/program expect.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Academic Integrity and Plagiarism — This course will be subject to the university's academic integrity policy. More information can be found at <http://academicintegrity.depaul.edu>. If you have any questions be sure to consult with me.

You will get caught. Don't do it.

Online Course Evaluations — Evaluations are a way for students to provide valuable feedback regarding their instructor and the course. Detailed feedback will enable the instructor to continuously tailor teaching methods and course content to meet the learning goals of the course and the academic needs of the students. They are a requirement of the course and are key to continue to provide you with the highest quality of teaching. The evaluations are anonymous; the instructor and administration do not track who entered what responses. A program is used to check if the student completed the evaluations, but the evaluation is completely separate from the student's identity. Since 100% participation is our goal, students are sent periodic reminders over three weeks. Students do not receive reminders once they complete the evaluation. Students complete the evaluation online in CampusConnect.

Academic Policies — All students are required to manage their class schedules each term in accordance with the deadlines for enrolling and withdrawing as indicated in the University Academic Calendar. Information on enrollment, withdrawal, grading and incompletes can be found at: cdm.depaul.edu/enrollment.

Students with Disabilities — Students who feel they may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact the instructor privately to discuss their specific needs. All discussions will remain confidential. To ensure that you receive the most appropriate accommodation based on your needs, contact the instructor as early as possible in the quarter (preferably within the first week of class), and make sure that you have contacted the Center for Students with Disabilities (CSD) at: csd@depaul.edu.

Lewis Center 1420, 25 East Jackson Blvd.

Phone number: (312)362-8002

Incompletes — Students can read about requesting or receiving an incomplete grade at

<http://www.cdm.depaul.edu/Current%20Students/Pages/Grading-Policies.aspx>

Excused absences — Students can read about the procedures for getting an excused absence at

<http://offices.depaul.edu/student-affairs/support-services/academic/Pages/absence-notification.aspx>
