Course Policies

- Focus: Class time requires your complete attention. All students are expected to participate in all class activities. This means no distractions, such as cell phone use, web browsing, texting/chatting, food, or working on other projects in class.
- Professionalism: Students are expected to act according to the professional environment of the classroom. This includes but is not limited to:
  - Maintaining a positive and open-minded attitude while participating in class discussions.
  - Progressively achieving the highest standards of quality of artwork to be submitted for grading.
  - Defending their artwork in an articulate manner that demonstrates critical and analytical thinking.
  - Demonstrating neat, self-disciplined, and timely work habits.
  - Attending class on time and staying throughout the whole class period.
- Originality & Ethical Content Usage:
  - This course is about camerawork, lighting, lensing, and all things Cinematic. As such, while I encourage you to create your own original CG scenes, environments, effects, and characters whenever possible, there are legitimate situations where external (not self created) elements are helpful when blocking out and developing a scene. Whenever you use external/stock/library assets, you must accompany your submission with an attributions PDF stating the asset(s) used, the creator/source name(s), and a link to the original asset.
- Dailies: Each week we will spend the first portion of class reviewing your assignments together as a group. IN ORDER TO BE INCLUDED IN DAILIES, YOUR ASSIGNMENT MUST BE TURNED IN 1-2 hours BEFORE THE CLASS THEY ARE DUE. Please do not wait until the last moment to work on your VFX assignment.
- Resubmissions: Visual effects are a highly iterative process. In the spirit of this, any of the initial five VFX exercise assignments that are turned in BY THEIR ORIGINALLY ASSIGNED DEADLINE are able to be revised and resubmitted. Revised files should be uploaded to the original submission folder on D2L. Resubmissions for these exercises will be accepted until the beginning of the final class of the course. Neither the Student Presentation nor Final Project assignments are eligible for resubmissions.
- Late work: Assignments submitted late will have their grades immediately reduced by 10%, plus an additional 10% per week the assignment is late. Late assignments are not eligible for resubmissions.
- Missing work: Missing work will receive a zero until a submission occurs.
- Grading: I generally grade assignments within one week of submission, and assign grades according to the following: A=93-100, A-=90-92, B+=87-89, B=83-86, B-=80-82, C+=77-79, C=73-76, C-=70-72, D+=67-69, D=63-66, D-=60-62, F=0-59.
- Attendance: Attendance is key to success in this course. Students who miss three days of class without prior instructor approval (in writing) will have their final grade lowered by 20%. Students who miss four days of class automatically fail the course. Missing more than 15 minutes of class (again without prior instructor approval) counts as an absence.
- Contact: Please make time during my office hours to ask questions in person, as this is often the fastest way to answer a complex question. I also can be available outside of office hours by appointment. I make every effort to respond to email within 24 hours, except on weekends and holidays. If you have an issue or emergency, please contact me as soon as possible before the next class date.

- Have fun: Making film and VFX can be challenging and stressful; don't forget to have fun and enjoy the process. We are all artists, and our art thrives when we put our individual ideas, passion and enthusiasm into our work.
- Syllabus Changes: This syllabus is subject to change as necessary during the quarter. If a change occurs, it will be addressed during class, and posted here in D2L.
- Drop Dates: Can be found at <https://academics.depaul.edu/calendar/Pages/default.aspx>

The preferred first name will appear in University related systems and documents except where the use of the legal name is necessitated or required by University business or legal need. For more information and instructions on how to do so, please see the Student Preferred Name and Gender Policy at policies.depaul.edu.

Assistance with Writing – The Writing Center

I strongly recommend you make use of the Writing Center throughout your time at DePaul. The Writing Center provides free peer writing tutoring for DePaul students, faculty, staff, and alumni. Writing Center tutors work with writers at all stages of the writing process, from invention to revision, and they are trained to identify recurring issues in your writing as well as address any specific questions or areas that you want to talk about. Visit www.depaul.edu/writing for more information.

Student Evaluations

At the end of this course, you will be provided with the opportunity to evaluate this course. Course evaluations provide valuable feedback that can improve teaching and learning. The greater the level of participation, the more useful the results. As students, you are in the unique position to view the instructor over time. Your comments about what works and what doesn't can help faculty build on the elements of the course that are strong and improve those that are weak. Isolated comments from students and instructors' peers may also be helpful, but evaluation results based on high response rates may be statistically reliable (believable). As you experience this course and material, think about how your learning is impacted. Your honest opinions about your experience in and commitment to the course and your learning may help improve some components of the course for the next group of students. Positive comments also show the department chairs and college deans the commitment of instructors to the university and teaching evaluation results are one component used in annual performance reviews (including salary raises and promotion/tenure). The evaluation of the instructor and course provides you an opportunity to make your voice heard on an important issue – the quality of teaching at DePaul. Don't miss this opportunity to provide feedback!

Academic Integrity

DePaul University is a learning community that fosters the pursuit of knowledge and the transmission of ideas within a context that emphasizes a sense of responsibility for oneself, for others and for society at large. Violations of academic integrity, in any of their forms, are, therefore, detrimental to the values of DePaul, to the students' own development as responsible members of society, and to the pursuit of knowledge and the transmission of ideas. Violations include but are not limited to the following categories: cheating; plagiarism; fabrication; falsification or sabotage of research data; destruction or misuse of the university's academic resources; alteration or falsification of academic records; and academic misconduct. Conduct that is punishable under the Academic Integrity Policy could result in additional disciplinary actions by other university officials and possible civil or criminal prosecution. Please refer to your Student Handbook or visit Academic Integrity at DePaul University (<http://academicintegrity.depaul.edu>) for further details.
