CONTENT WARNINGS: This is an inclusive environment. You may encounter ideas that affirm or undermine your beliefs, which presents a chance for reflection and growth. Learning is uncomfortable, but the disorientation we feel when our world view expands is not the same as trauma response. Engaging with art can be transformative and cathartic, however, traumatic subject matter can trigger fight-or-flight reactions. Such physiological responses impede learning.

Given that traumatic events are the basis of many stories, I will do my best to flag topics of concern in advance, giving students a chance to prepare. We may screen films or read texts that reference subject matter such as: Violence, Sexual assault/rape; Racism; Slurs, Sexism; Transphobia; Homophobia; Ableism; Abuse/neglect; Suicide; Blood; Body Shaming; Death, dying and disease; Flashing lights/epilepsy triggers.

We will explore these topics courageously, respectfully, and honestly as filmmakers. If you need to step out due to something that happens externally or internally in class, go ahead. We can discuss missed work and an alternative way to engage with the course material if needed.

The University Counseling & Psychological Services is an excellent, free resource for students:

TECHNOLOGY AND CLASS TIME: Cell phones distract from active engagement. Leave them in your bag. during class time. Note-taking on a laptop is not advised. If using a laptop, close all other applications and disconnect from the wifi.

GRADE BREAKDOWN:

1. Casting session (prep & participation & response)	20 points
2. Script Breakdown	20 points
3. Games & Improvisation (prep & participation)	20 points
4. Rehearsal Plan (Your group all gets the same grade)	20 points
5. Final Performance + self-evaluation (individual grade)	20 points
Total 100 points

Final Grade: A = 100 – 93, A- = 92 – 90, B+ = 89 – 88, B = 87 – 83, B- = 82 – 80, C+ = 79 – 78, C = 77 – 73, C- = 72 – 70, D+ = 69 – 68, D = 67 – 63, D- = 62 – 60, F = 59 – 0.

MISSING & LATE ASSIGNMENTS: You WILL turn in all assignments. I'd rather take them late and give you some credit than give you a zero. Assignments have a purpose, it's part of the learning. If you don't do an assignment, you miss out on a crucial piece of the class and you let your group down. Don't think of them as homework, think of them as the work you simply have to do on a project in the real world. Lateness: In case of illness, technical issues, etc, please contact me PRIOR to the due date. It shows that you care and that you're trying.

ATTENDANCE: Since we do most of the work in class, attendance is mandatory to get the full value of the class. I will take attendance at the beginning of every class. Any absences will result in a reduction of the assignment that week because most assignments include participation. Anyone who misses 3 unexcused classes will automatically fail the class. However, if you are legitimately sick, please stay home AND please email me at eday6@depaul.edu if you are going to miss class. Make-up work is possible, please stay in touch!

COURSE POLICIES:

CHANGES TO SYLLABUS

This syllabus is subject to change as necessary during the quarter. If a change occurs, it will be thoroughly addressed during class, posted under Announcements in D2L and sent via email.

COVID-19 HEALTH AND SAFETY PRECAUTIONS

The ongoing COVID-19 situation requires flexibility in order to prioritize the collective health of the class and our community. We will continue to follow CDC guidelines, DePaul policies, and common sense. Any changes to the course will be communicated via d2l and email.

DO NOT ATTEND class if you have any COVID-like symptoms or if you are waiting on the results of a COVID-19 test. If you show up visibly sick, you will be sent home to complete the work online. If you must attend class from home, communicate with me and we can come up with alternate classroom circumstances.

RESPECT FOR DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION AT DEPAUL UNIVERSITY AS ALIGNED WITH OUR VINCENTIAN VALUES

At DePaul, our mission calls us to explore “what must be done” in order to respect the inherent dignity and identity of each human person. We value diversity because it is part of our history, our traditions and our future. We see diversity as an asset and a strength that adds to the richness of classroom learning. In my course, I strive to include diverse authors, perspectives and teaching pedagogies. I also encourage open dialogue and spaces for students to express their unique identities and perspectives. I am open to having difficult conversations and I will strive to create an inclusive classroom that values all perspectives. If at any time, the classroom experience does not live up to this expectation, please feel free to contact me via email or during office hours.

ONLINE COURSE EVALUATIONS

Evaluations are a way for students to provide valuable feedback regarding their instructor and the course. Detailed feedback will enable the instructor to continuously tailor teaching methods and course content to meet the learning goals of the course and the academic needs of the students. They are a requirement of the course and are key to continue to provide you with the highest quality of teaching. The evaluations are anonymous; the instructor and administration do not track who entered what responses. A program is used to check if the student completed the evaluations, but the evaluation is completely separate from the student’s identity. Since 100% participation is our goal, students are sent periodic reminders over three weeks. Students do not receive reminders once they complete the evaluation. Please see <https://resources.depaul.edu/teaching-commons/teaching/Pages/online-teaching-evaluations.aspx> for additional information.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM

This course will be subject to the university's academic integrity policy. All students are expected to abide by the University's Academic Integrity Policy which prohibits cheating and other misconduct in student coursework. Publicly sharing or posting online any prior or current materials from this course (including exam questions or answers), is considered to be providing unauthorized assistance prohibited by the policy. Both students who share/post and students who access or use such materials are considered to be cheating under the Policy and will be subject to sanctions for violations of Academic Integrity.
